Numb. 9184.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 14, to Saturday July 18, 1752.

Naples, June 27.

ON Saturday laſt the King, attended by ſeveral of the principal Lords of his Court, went from Portici to view the new Palace that is erecting at Caſerta, with which his Majeſty ſeemed greatly pleaſed, and ordered a handſome Sum of Money to be diſtributed amongſt the Workmen. On Sunday Night a Fire broke out at a conſiderable Druggiſts in this City, which burnt down that and ſeveral other Houſes adjoining. Moſt of our armed Chebecks are now cruiſing in the Seas of Calabria, in order to protect the Navigation of this Kingdom from the Barbary Pyrates.

Florence, July 1. The Regencies of Barbary and Algiers have made a Propoſal to this State, to furniſh the Inhabitants of Tuſcany with all the Corn they ſhall from Time to Time have Occaſion for, at a Sequin a Sack, and to take one half of its Value in the Manufactures of this Country, and the other half in Specie, which Propoſal is ſent by Count Richecourt to Vienna, for his Imperial Majeſty's Approbation. They write from Leghorn, that on Friday the 23d of laſt Month they had a violent Shock of an Earthquake, which happily went off without doing any conſiderable Damage.

Leghorn, July 2. The Maſter of a French Ship which arrived here a few Days ago aſſures us, that a Venetian Man of War, cruizing in the Adriatick Gulph, had fallen in with two Barbary Corſairs, one of which ſhe had ſunk, and had taken the other with eight Guns and 64 Men on board. It has been currently reported here for ſome Days paſt, that Part of the Ottoman Fleet, under the Command of the Captain Baſhaw, who was going to collect the annual Tributes of the Inhabitants of the Iſlands in the Archipelago, for the Uſe of the Grand Seignior, had periſhed at Sea in a violent Tempeſt; but as ſome Ships are ſince come in from the Levant, the Maſters of which declare they heard of no ſuch Accident, we muſt ſuſpend our Belief of it for the preſent.

Toulon, July 2. A Tartane, named the Emanuel, that made Part of the ſmall Squadron commanded by M. du Reveſt, which ſailed from hence ſome Time ago for the Mediterranean, is returned into this Port with Advice, that the Dey of Tripoly has conſented to give that Commander all the Satisfaction the King his Maſter required; that M. du Reveſt continued at Anchor before Tripoly, waiting for the Squadron commanded by M. Villarzel, in order to go on a ſecret Expedition, as is ſaid to Tunis, to demand Satisfaction of the new Dey for compelling the French Miniſter, M. Montchenu, to declare in his Favour againſt the Dey his Father, at the Time of the late Revolution in that State.

Parma, July 3. The Small-Pox being very rife at Colorno, and many of the Inhabitants dying of it, the Duke and Dutcheſs our Sovereigns have thought fit to leave that Place much ſooner than they intended, and have fixed their Reſidence for the preſent in this City. We are informed that Cardinal Alberoni has, by his Will, given all his Lands and Tenements in Lombardy to the College of St. Lazarus at Plaſentia; and thoſe he was poſſeſſed of in the Romagnia, to the Abbe Alberoni his Nephew, for his Life only, after which they are to go likewiſe to the ſaid College. They continue to make the neceſſary Preparations for the Dutcheſs's intended Journey to France, and 'tis aſſured ſhe is to be accompanied thither by the Infanta Iſabella her Daughter.

Stockholm, July 7. We have received Advice, that the King landed ſafe at Helſingfors in Finland the 27th of laſt Month, and was joyfully received by the Inhabitants of that Dutchy. The Reſolutions taken by the late Diet, for the Improvement of the Commerce of this Kingdom, are now vigorouſly carrying into Execution. Lieutenant Colonel Baron Scheffer is ſet out from hence for France, in order to replace his Brother in the Poſt of Envoy Extraordinary from this Court. We learn from Gothenbourg, that the Prince Charles and the Gothick Lyon, two Ships belonging to our Eaſt India Company, arrived there the 26th of laſt Month

[Price Two Pence.]

Month from China; and that the Sale of the Merchandize, brought by them, is to commence on the 17th of next Month.

Munich, July 9. Duke Clement of Bavaria, and the Princeſs his Spouſe, who went laſt Wedneſday to Lichtenbourg, to compliment the Elector of Bavaria our Sovereign upon his late Recovery, are returned here, and propoſe going the latter End of next Week to the Palace of Nymphenbourg, in order to meet his Electoral Highneſs, who 'tis ſaid will be there from Lichtenbourg by that Time.

Aix-la-Chapelle, July 16. We are aſſured, that the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Brandenbourg-Anſpach with the Princeſs Carolina-Amelia-Sophia, fourth Daughter of the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel, is agreed to, and that the ſame will be celebrated in a ſhort Time. We are informed by Letters from Straſbourg, that the new Swiſs Regiment, which was raiſed in the Canton of Zurich, by Virtue of an Agreement made for that Purpoſe between that Canton and the Court of France, is almoſt compleat. The Cardinal Prince and Biſhop of Liege, for whoſe Reception Preparations have been making for ſome Days paſt at Spa, arrived there on Thurſday laſt, with a numerous Retinue, and propoſes ſtaying about a Month.

Bruſſels, July 17. The almoſt continual Rains that have fallen in this Country, ever ſince the Beginning of this Month, give Room to fear our Harveſt will not prove altogether ſo plentiful as we ſome Time ſince imagined; and in Conſequence the Price of Bread, which has been very moderate for ſome Time paſt, is now daily expected to riſe.

Hague, July 20. We learn from Utrecht, that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante arrived there on Tueſday Night laſt with her Children, in perfect Health; and having reſted that Night at Baron Gieffenbourg's, her Royal Highneſs continued her Journey Yeſterday Morning for Dieren.

General Poſt-Office, June 22, 1752.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Poſt will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London; to begin on Wedneſday next the 24th Inſtant, and continue ſo to do during the Summer Seaſon, as uſual.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

Hicks-Hall in the County of Middleſex, 17 July, 1752.

At a Meeting this Day of the ſeveral Juſtices appointed by the Lords of his Majeſty's Privy Council, by their Order on the 25th of November, 1745, to put in Execution his Majeſty's ſeveral Orders of Council within the County of Middleſex, in relation to the Infected Cattle.

WHEREAS the Time draws near for holding a Fair in this County, called Welſh Fair, for the ſelling of Horned Cattle, which ſaid Fair uſed to be held at Iſlington, but lately has been held at Barnet: And whereas we have Cauſe to believe the ſaid Infection, which during the Summer Time, in this County has greatly decreaſed, has for ſome Years, by reaſon of this Fair broke out again, and raged very much during the Months of September, October and November: Therefore in order to prevent ſuch ſpreading of the ſaid Diſtemper, and in Purſuance of the Powers and Authorities given, as well by his Majeſty's Orders in Council, as by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament in that Behalf made, we do order and direct, That no Fair or Market, or other publick Place of Sale, be held or kept within this County for the Sale of Horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) from the 15th Day of Auguſt next, to the 10th Day of October following; and that no Perſon or Perſons ſhall or do preſume to drive, ſend, or remove, or cauſe to be driven, ſent, or removed, any Horned Cattle, (except fat Cattle for immediate Slaughter) to any Fair, Market, or other publick Place of ſale in this County, within the Time before mentioned, under the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures mentioned, ſet, or impoſed by his Majeſty's ſaid Orders in Council, or the ſaid Acts of Parliament, or any of them in that Caſe made. And for the notifying this Order, it is further directed, That the ſame be forthwith inſerted in the London Gazette, the Daily Advertiſer, and London Evening Poſt.

John Milner.

By Order of the ſaid Juſtices,
James Willder, Clerk.

London, July 16, 1752.

Notice is hereby given, that purſuant to the Reſolution of a General Court of the Corporation called the Governor and Company for working of Mines, Minerals and Metals, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, a Dividend of One per Cent. on the Joint Stock of the ſaid Company will begin to be paid at the Sun-Fire-Office behind the Royal Exchange, on Thurſday the 6th of Auguſt next enſuing, and ſo continue every Thurſday thereafter till the Whole is paid: And that the Tranſfer Books of the ſaid Company, which are now ſhut, will be opened again on Thurſday the ſaid 6th of Auguſt.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and others, that were on board his Majeſty's Ship the Rippon's Prize, Samuel Graves, Eſq; Commander, on the 30th of March, 1746, that were then actually on board at the Taking a French Schooner, Le Manure De Leſgan, that they will be paid their reſpective Shares of the Head or Bounty Money, on Saturday the 15th Day of Auguſt next, at the White Bear in Broad Street, London; and ſuch Shares as are not then demanded, will be paid the firſt Saturday of every Month for three Years.
